A Lenten Prayer

(The pastor reads each prayer request with a time of silence to follow)

- ❖ Those whom we love – those present with us and those from whom we are separated. . .
- ❖ The prisoners, and those held captive physically, mentally, or spiritually . . .
- ❖ The sick and the suffering . . .
- ❖ Those who care for the sick, both medical caregivers and families who wait and watch with them . . .
- ❖ Those who mourn the loss of loved ones, the loss of freedom, the loss of security, the loss of a livelihood, or the loss of a sense of order and control . . .
- ❖ Those with more questions than answers, and all who long for your guiding light for their path . . .
- ❖ The lonely, the isolated, and those who long for a loving touch . . .
- ❖ Those whose remaining days on this earth are few, and for those walking in the valley of the shadow of death . . .

❖ Those whom we too easily forget, and those whose needs are known only to you . . .

God of compassion, hear our prayers; fill us with your grace, and inspire us to be instruments of mercy and hope, for we pray in the name of Jesus Christ, who taught us to pray together.....
