

Litany of Thanksgiving

Leader: Today, as we gather for worship, we remember that we are the people of God's pasture, the sheep of God's hand. Today, we celebrate the invitation to be in God's presence.

People: We thank you, Holy God, that you shower our lives and our world with your constant love.

Leader: Today we remember Jesus' invitation to take up our cross and follow him into a life of love and faith.

People: We thank you, Holy God, that you bless us with your truth and wisdom that we might be a blessing to others.

Leader: Today we recall that, as members of one body, we can make a difference in a world of people in need of the hope and love of Christ. Today, we recognize this hope that unites us and sustains us.

People: We thank you, Holy God, for making us a people of hope and steadfast faith.

Leader: Today we come before our God to pray for one another and those we love, those we know and those we do not who stand in need of God's grace, grateful that God hears us and answers us.

People: We thank you, Holy God, for your mercy and grace which sustain us and those we love.

Leader: Holy God, of all our days, we remember that our help and our hope is in you. Guide us and bless us, we pray, that we may be your lights shining in this challenging world.

People: For your love, for your blessings, we give you thanks, Most Holy God.
